

E-book guide

What you need

- Please note to access e-books you need an Athens username and password.
- You can read books online in your web browser.
- To download a book to your computer or laptop and read it there, you will need Adobe Digital Editions. If you do not have this you can download it or log a call with the HIS Service Desk.
- To download and read a book on your Apple or Android tablet, you will need “Bluefire Reader”. This is a free app.

Finding the e-books

Books the library owns that you can borrow straight away

- Log on to librarycatalogue.sssft.nhs.uk
- Click “Enter Library”.
- The Guided Search page will appear. In the “All Fields” box if you type electronic books it will bring up all of the trust’s electronic books.
- If you prefer to put in a specific book or author it will locate that book. Check there is an electronic version as there may be hard copies too.
- You can also contact the library for a specific book; a direct resource link to the book can be sent to you at your chosen email address.

E-book Central Library

- Go to the library website ebooks page – <http://library.sssft.nhs.uk/ebooks>
- Click on the link to the ‘E-book Central Library’
- See our separate E-book Library guide for more information

Once you have located the book

- Click on the title.
- Click on the resource link.
- This will open up the “Authentication Point”. Put in your Athens username and password.
- You will have the option to:-
Read online or Download the book.

Read Online –

- You can read online for approximately 10 minutes then you will be asked to choose a loan length e.g. 1 day.

Downloading to your tablet –

- Choose a loan length (sometimes between 1 – 14 days). There may be a choice of Formats Available e.g. PDF & ePUB.

- Select PDF if you are downloading to a PC or Kindle and select ePUB for other E readers or tablets.
